A little later, the father went to his room and came back with an old diary. He said: "My dear son, I bought this diary when you were born." Then he opened a page and kindly asked his son to read that page. The son looked at the page, paused and started reading it aloud:

[Today my little son was sitting on my lap, when a pigeon sat on the window. My son asked me what it was 15 times, and I replied to him all 15 times that it was a pigeon. I kissed him lovingly each time when he asked the same question again and again. I did not feel angry at all. I was actually feeling happy for my lovely child]
