A lot of people go to the seaside for their holidays every year. In one seaside holiday town in the South of England, plans were made for a group to play outdoors in a public park every morning for a week. On the second morning, although the group had performed some pieces very well the day before, there was only one man in the audience because it was raining and there was no overhead cover. This man was sitting in a chair, wearing a waterproof hat and coat. After an hour the conductor of the group went to him and asked if he had a special request. "Yes I have ", said the man, Please finish as soon as you can. I'm the keeper of this park and I want to lock the doors and go home."
