John: Excuse me Mr. Anderson, I wonder if you could help me.

Mr. Anderson: Sure. How can I help you?

John: I'd like some information about a good English dictionary.

Mr. Anderson: Oh, well. Have you ever used a dictionary?

John: Actually, I haven't. But I've heard that using a good dictionary can really help me learn English better.

Mr. Anderson: That's right. First, I recommend a learner's dictionary.

John: What is a learner's dictionary?

Mr. Anderson: It is designed for foreign students. It also helps them learn English better.

John: Is there only one type of it?

Mr. Anderson: No, in fact dictionaries have different types, levels, and sizes.

John: What type do you suggest?

Mr. Anderson: I suppose a monolingual dictionary is more suitable for you, because you can find word information in English.

John: And what about levels?

Mr. Anderson: Well, there are usually three levels: elementary, intermediate and advanced.

For you as a high school student, an elementary one is OK.
