4	B: Read the texts and answer the questions. Rest and relaxation are just as important to our body as exercise and healthy eating. If you don't get enough of them, you can make yourself ill. Lack of sleep affects our ability to concentrate. When you dream, your brain may be cleaning itself out and preparing itself for the next day's thinking. During your teens, you need at least eight hours sleep a night. If you stay out late, try to go to bed early the next night. The effects of lack of sleep can build up over several days. When you are awake, you make many demands on your mind and body, so your body needs a period of rest to repair itself and not getting worn out. During sleep body cells try to grow and repair themselves. If you have troubles getting to sleep, try reading a book or take some exercises and avoid tea, coffee, or food before bedtime. A hot, milky drink may help you relax. QUESTIONS: 27. How does sleep affect your body? ..... 28. What should you do to keep healthy?.....	11
