Part C: Reading comprehension

3

We are going to take a trip to the heart of Lut Desert, Lilliput village. It is one in the south east of Birjand. There are some interesting facts about the houses in this village.

These houses are alike. They look strange but beautiful and are near each other. The floor of each house is one meter under the ground with a small wooden door. Everything in this village seems to be for little people. The walls, the windows, and the shelves. These kind and friendly people have some interesting beliefs.

They never hunt animals. They don't eat meat & don't drink tea. They don't smoke at all. It's just a few years that they have TVs. These days, people are taller than before and their height is increasing. Every year thousands of tourists visit Lilliput village, Makhunik. They think staying in these wonderful houses is better than five-star hotels.

True – False
