When you come across an unfamiliar word, that word may stop your understanding of the passage. Your eyes pause too long on the word as you try to get its meaning. You go back and read the word again, try to get its meaning from the context. As a result, you read much more slowly than you should, and you find that the difficult word is a wall to your comprehension. Suppose that you know many words and you are skilled in finding the meanings of new words. Your eyes move quickly and you read rapidly. You comprehend what you are reading.
