C: Monire is reading a report about " Arts of Iran " . she is going to scan the text. Complete the answers together .

The arts of Iran are one of the richest art heritages in world history and encompasses many traditional disciplines,including,architecture,painting,literature,music, weaving, pottery, calligraphy, metalworking and stonemasonry. There is also a very vibrant Iranian modern and contemporary art scene, as well as cinema and photography.

The art of rug weaving in has its roots in the culture and customs of its people and their instinctive feelings. Weavers mix elegant patterns with a myriad of colors. The Iranian carpet is similar to the Persian garden: full of florae, birds, and beasts. Painting in Iran is thought to have reached a climax during the Tamerlane era when outstanding masters such as Kamaledin Behzad gave birth to a new style of painting. The earliest references to musicians in Iran are found in Susa and Elam in the 3rd millennium BC. The tile work is a unique feature of the blue mosques of . In the old days, Kashan (kash + an which literally means "land of tiles") and Tabriz were the two famous centers of Iranian mosaic and tile industry.

Another handicrafts of Iran are :Giveh or Givah is a kind of soft, comfortable, durable and handwoven-top shoe common in several parts of Iran especially in rural and mountainous areas of Kermanshah Province. The production centers of Giveh are the two provinces of Yazd and Kermanshah in Iran.

Kalamkari or qalamkari is a type of hand-painted or block-printed cotton textile, produced in Iran and India. Its name originates in the Persian, which is derived from the words qalam (pen) and kari (craftmanship), meaning drawing with a pen. Only natural dyes are used in kalamkari and it involves seventeen steps.They are beautiful sarees.
